TEAMWORK

"The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team." --Phil Jackson

Teamwork relies on each member working towards a common goal. Have you ever been part of a team in which individual egos were set aside in favor of group success? What were the strengths of that team, what did you contribute to the group and what did you learn from the experience? Now flip. Have you ever been part of a team in which the group failed due to internal issues, character or commitment? What did you learn from that experience about yourself and about teams? How do you feel personally accountable?
